GE Wiring Devices
Standard Limited Warranty

The General Electric Company warrants its title to the products sold by it and warrants to the Purchaser that such products are free of defects of workmanship or material are in conformity with applicable written or printed specifications. If, within twelve months of startup, the products delivered do not meet the warranties specified above and the Purchaser gives written notice thereof within 30 days of discovery, the Company shall thereupon at its option, either refund the purchase price of, supply replacement materials for, or repair the products, or part concerned, f.o.b. its factory or such other place as it may designate. (Should the Company choose to replace rather than repair a product, it may do so, as at its option, with either a new or rebuilt unit. These replacements units will carry a new parts warranty.) Upon expiration of twelve months from the date of startup, all such liability shall terminate. The foregoing warranties stated in this paragraph are exclusive and in lieu of all other warranties, whether written, oral, implied or statutory and NO WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR OF FITNESS FOR PURPOSE SHALL APPLY.

In no event shall the Company be liable for consequential or special damages, and the Company's liability on any claim for loss of liability, arising out or connected with the supplying of its product hereunder, or their sale, resale or use, whether based on warranty, contract, negligence or other grounds, shall not in any case exceed the selling price of such product, or part thereof, involved in the claim.
